Combined Licenses; Conforming Amendments; Post-Promulgation Comment

AGENCY: Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

ACTION: Final rule; comment response.

SUMMARY: The Nuclear Regulatory Commission (Commission) is addressing the one comment that it received in response to a supplementary post-promulgation comment opportunity on a portion of its final rule amending its regulations to conform to the provisions of Title XXVIII of Public Law 102-486, the "Energy Policy Act of 1992," signed into law on October 24, 1992. This notice is necessary to inform the public of the Commission's response to that post-promulgation comment.

DATES: The final rule became effective January 22, 1993. Comments to the supplementary comment opportunity were due by July 11, 1994.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Grace H. Kim, Office of the General Counsel, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555, telephone 301-415-3605.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background

By Federal Register notice published on June 10, 1994 (59 FR 29965), the Commission offered a supplementary 30-day opportunity for "post-promulgation" comment on a portion of the final rule revising 10 CFR part 52 in light of Title XXVIII of the Energy Policy Act of 1992 (Pub. L. 102-486, 106 Stat. 2776), which amended the Atomic Energy Act to authorize explicitly the issuance of combined construction and operating licenses for nuclear power plants.¹ As the Commission explained in its Federal Register notice, this supplementary comment opportunity, limited to the so-called "Sholly" portion of the final part 52 rule,² was provided by the Commission in conjunction with an agreement for the voluntary withdrawal of a petition for review of the final part 52 rule that had been filed by the Nuclear Information and Resource Service in the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit. See id. The Commission received only one comment in response, which was submitted on July 8, 1994 by the Nuclear Energy Institute (NEI) (the successor organization to NUMARC). In its submittal NEI essentially mirrors NUMARC's previous comments with respect to the "Sholly" provisions of the final rule, expressing its support for the Commission's amendment of 10 CFR 52.97 to make the "Sholly" procedure applicable to combined licenses and reiterating NUMARC's earlier request that the Commission modify certain language in the final rule's statement of considerations to clarify the Commission's intent regarding the implementation of § 52.97. See 58 FR at 69220, 69221. Because NEI merely reiterates NUMARC's comments, which have already been fully considered and addressed by the Commission (id.), no further response is necessary.

¹ As required by 10 CFR 2.804(f), the Commission had also invited post-promulgation comment at the time it promulgated the final part 52 rule. See 57 FR 60975 (December 30, 1992). In response to this comment opportunity, the Commission received comments only from the Nuclear Management and Resources Council (NUMARC). The Commission responded to this comment in a Federal Register notice published on December 30, 1993 (58 FR 69220).

² The "Sholly" procedure, which the Commission made applicable to combined licenses in the final rule in accordance with the Energy Policy Act (see 57 FR at 60976; 10 CFR 52.97(b)(2)(ii)), allows the Commission to make an amendment to a combined license immediately effective (i.e., prior to a hearing if it makes a finding that there are no significant hazards considerations).

Control of Air Pollution; Emission Standards for New Gasoline Spark-Ignition and Diesel Compression-Ignition Marine Engines

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Extension of comment period for the notice of proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: EPA announces an extension of the public comment period until March 2, 1995 for the proposed rulemaking regarding emission standards for new gasoline spark-ignition and diesel compression-ignition marine engines. EPA is extending the deadline for public comment at the request of the National Marine Manufacturers Association and the Engine Manufacturers Association. Extension of the comment period will facilitate the submission of public comment by allowing a more reasonable time frame.

DATES: Comments must be received on or before Thursday, March 2, 1995.

ADDRESSES: Interested parties may submit written comments (in triplicate, if possible) for EPA consideration by addressing them as follows: EPA Air Docket (LE-131), Attention: Docket Number A-92-28, Room M-1500, 401 M Street, S.W., Washington, DC 20460. Materials relevant to this rulemaking are contained in this docket and may be reviewed at this location from 8:00 a.m. until noon and from 1:30 p.m. until 3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. As provided in 40 CFR part 2, a reasonable fee may be charged by EPA for photocopying.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Deanne North, Office of Mobile Sources, Certification Division, (313) 668-4283 or Holly Pugliese, Office of Mobile Sources, Certification Division, (313) 668-4288.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Authority for the proposed new marine engine emission standards is granted to EPA by sections 203, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 213, 215, 216, and 301(a) of the Clean Air Act (CAA) as amended. The notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM) was published in the Federal Register on Wednesday, November 9, 1994 (59 FR 55930).

The current comment period would close on Tuesday, January 31, 1995. However, with this notice, EPA has extended the comment period to Thursday, March 2, 1995, at the request of two marine engine manufacturer associations. EPA has received a request from the National Marine Manufacturers Association for an extension of the deadline to allow smaller manufacturers (and other manufacturers) additional time to study and comment on the proposed rule. Some of the smaller companies who have not worked directly with the association in providing data and input to EPA during the development of the proposal need additional time to study the proposal to provide meaningful comment. In addition, EPA has received a request from the Engine Manufacturers Association for an extension of the comment period to allow EMA member companies additional time to study and comment on the diesel compression-ignition portions of the proposed rule, particularly on the technical test procedure issues. The Agency has an interest in examining comprehensive information from interested parties that may be useful in developing the most appropriate final rule. Therefore, EPA has extended the comment period until Thursday, March 2, 1995.

Dated: January 19, 1995.

Mary Nichols,

Assistant Administrator.
